Eirik Fulton, President of Westcap Insurance Services, is pleased that I-Engineering and the ALIS System are affording Westcap Insurance Services the tools they need to service their client base more efficiently. "The ALIS System has really advanced how we service our brokers," Fulton said. "Having ALIS as our technological foundation has greatly improved our quote turnaround times without sacrificing underwriting."

"ALIS has given Westcap a significant competitive advantage," Fulton added. "The impact on our day-to-day business processes has been immense. ALIS gives us the framework to provide our business partners with the highest level of service. It's been great working with them."

Naval Kapoor, President and CEO of I-Engineering said, "Working with Westcap has been an honor for the I-Engineering team and it is gratifying that they have selected the ALIS Enterprise System as their technology foundation. We are excited for Westcap as they experience the benefits of this comprehensive and intuitive Agency Management System, providing vast improvements to their day-to-day operations with quality, speed and added efficiency. I-Engineering strives to provide our clients with the highest level of customer service and we look forward to our continued relationship with Westcap and the role we play in their continued growth and success."
