

Brownyard Group Goes Live with I-Engineering's ALIS Enterprise System & Claims System

A New York Based Program Administrator Offering Specialized Business Coverage Programs for 70 Years

Shelton, CT, July 21, 2020 – I-Engineering is pleased to announce that Brownyard Group, based in Bay Shore, New York, is live with the ALIS Enterprise System and a first of its kind, I-Engineering Claims System Interface. Brownyard Group is a program administrator providing specialized insurance coverage for select industry groups since 1950. Now live with I-Engineering's industry leading technology platform, ALIS – the All Lines Insurance Suite and an entirely new Claims System Interface, Brownyard Group has greatly augmented their efficiency and ability to rapidly service the needs of their clients, without hiring additional staff.

Brownyard Group specializes in business coverage programs for security, pest control, investigative, alarm services, salon and spa, cosmetics, landscaping services, cemetery and library industries. Utilizing ALIS, they now have the power to service their clients with a robust technology suite that can provide a fully integrated Rating Engine with Web Services, Policy Issuance and Management, Renewals, Endorsements, Cancellations, Workflow, Document Management and Reporting as well as a Full Accounting Module. I-Engineering's ALIS is the complete Agency Management System and can be interfaced with third party systems via API or XML transfer. Additionally, I-Engineering's Claim System provides Brownyard Group with an entirely new sleek and efficient interface that streamlines claims management and can easily accommodate third party claims.

Jennifer Brownyard, Marketing Manager of Brownyard Group, said, "Partnering with I-Engineering to develop a customized solution for our needs has been a gratifying experience, allowing us to realize a premier level of service and efficiency. Utilizing the incredible benefits of ALIS and our customized Claims System, we now have a powerful tool that maximizes the strength of our team, giving us the ability to more rapidly meet and exceed the needs of our clients. The ability to quote and bind with a single-entry process has been a game changer for Brownyard Group. I-Engineering has allowed us to more efficiently provide our clients the outstanding service they have come to expect throughout our 70-year history."

Naval Kapoor, President and CEO of I-Engineering said, "We are honored to play an integral part of the enduring success of Brownyard Group, as they celebrate 70 years of service. Partnering with them to develop a highly sophisticated claims module that is exceedingly user intuitive has been very gratifying. I-Engineering strives to provide the highest level of service as they continue to grow and reap the rewards of ALIS and our customized claims system. We are proud to provide a comprehensive technological foundation that will maximize Brownyard Group's ability to service their clients with the utmost level of efficiency."
