The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan Go Live with I-Engineering's ALIS Enterprise System

New York City Based Program Administrators Serving the Residential Real Estate Industry

Shelton, CT, November 14, 2019 – I-Engineering is pleased to announce that The Brownstone Agency, Inc. and Murphy & Jordan LLC of New York City are live with the ALIS Enterprise System. The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan, serving the residential real estate industry since 1973, now have the power to accommodate thousands of simultaneous transactions with I-Engineering's industry leading technology platform, ALIS – the All Lines Insurance Suite. Primarily serving the Mid-Atlantic, including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Connecticut, The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan have revolutionized their office efficiency with a robust technology suite that can provide a fully integrated Rating Engine with Web Services, Policy Issuance and Management, Renewals, Endorsements, Cancellations, Reinstatement Claims, Workflow, Document Management and Reporting as well as a Full Accounting Module. I-Engineering's ALIS is the complete Agency Management System and can be interfaced with third party systems via API or XML transfer.

John Simone, Managing Director of The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan, said, "The ALIS platform allows us to have all of our data in one spot. With I-Engineering's customized software solutions, managing our data, across multiple platforms, is streamlined to a single-entry process. Our ALIS system has drastically improved our efficiency, allowing us to better serve our clients."

"I-Engineering has been a responsive partner throughout our integration and training process," Simone said. "From the start, they worked with us to understand our unique needs and helped us develop the exact system for our special line of business. They have worked seamlessly with our team to ensure that we fully maximize all the benefits of ALIS. Now, we have the speed and efficiency to continue to grow and serve our agents with the highest level of service."

Naval Kapoor, President and CEO of I-Engineering said, "It is very gratifying to partner with The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan. Service is paramount to The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan, as it is to I-Engineering, and we are proud to be the technology foundation that will allow them to better serve their clients now, and as they grow in the future. I-Engineering's comprehensive and intuitive agency management system is greatly augmenting the quality, speed and efficiency of their day to day operations. Going forward, our primary goal is to meet and exceed their evolving automation needs. We look forward to contributing to the continued success of The Brownstone Agency and Murphy & Jordan."
